THE GENERAL PRODUCE market was | patches: active only in new potatoes; corn was weaker, and cornmeal lower. The American Grocer, of Saturday, said: "Men phis merchants are again complaining of short weights in cornmeal shipped from St. Louis. Reclamations made are promptly met by shippers, but instead of this appearing to be an absence of fraudulent intent it is construed to be a fear that the matter will be made public. The St. Louis merchants have promised to bring the matter formally before the chamber of commerce there." Yes, but they did not. The same paper says: "The stock of lard is large, while the receipts of hogs at the principal western markets have been very heavy and beyond the anticipation of those interested. In addition to this, the yield of lard per hog is greater, owing to the cheapness of corn, all of which tends to swell the stock. Many, too, who rought heavily earlier in the season have been 'unloading,' which produced a depression in values, while the buying both for home consumption and export has been much less than expected. The foreign markets have not come forward freely, notwithstanding their reported limited stocks, and beyond current wants very little has been done. At the present writing prices are higher, as will be seen in our market reports." Corn was hardly as strong as it was a few days ago, one carload and 198 sacks sold at 51c, 176 sacks at 52c, and 81 sacks extra choice at 58c. Oats were neglected, some inferior were seeking a buyer. Bran is wanted and none offering, with an upward tendency in consequence. Hay sold at $6.75 for a car-load of small-bale prairie of moderate quality; 80 baies fair hay at $12; 25 baies prairie at $19. Commed is in full stock and 800 barrels arrived, making, it is estimated, about 2500 barrelson hand; sales were first at $2 35, then declined to $2 30. Potatoes were in fair demand with moderate arrivals; sales of loose from wagons at $1 25@1 75 a barrel measure. Eggs were steady at 15@ 16c. Butter was firm for choice; best prairie brought 20c; western choice, 22@23c. Chickens were easier at $1 75 @3; a few very choice sold at $3 25; nothing of importance done in old. Cooperage, home-made, 30c for half-barrels. Hog produce was in larger receipt here at steady prices. Chicago telegrams reported pork, lard and bulk rather higher; receipts of hogs the last twenty-four hours, 1400 head. MONEY MARKETS.
